

Drink On

Thomas Shadwell (1640-1693)

A catch in four parts

Gary Bachlund

$\text{♩} = 66$  con rubato a piacere

f

Red.

9

Come, lay by your cares, and hang up your sor - row; hang up your sor - row; drink on, he's a sot that e'er thinks on to - mor - row; thinks on to - mor - row. Drink

mp

13

1. 2.

on... Drink Good on! _____

f

17

store of good Cla - ret sup - plies ev' - ry thing, And the man that is drunk, is as

mf

20

great as a King. Drink

mf

23

on! Let none at mis - for - tune or loss - es re - pine. ...or take a full dose of the juice of the vine; the

mp

27

loss - es re - pine. Just drink on! But juice of the vine. Just drink

f

30 <sup>2.</sup>

on! _____ Dis - ea - ses and trou - bles are ne'er to be found, are

f mp

34

ne'er to be found, Just drink on! _____

f

38

But in the damned place where the glass goes not round. _____

Red.

42

Drink on! _____ Drink on!

30 X 2012 Berlin