

'Tis moonlight

Emily Brontë (1818-1848)

Gary Bachlund

Largo poco rit.

'Tis moon-light, sum-mer moon-light, all soft and still and
But most where trees are send-ing their bree-zy boughs on p

6 a tempo

fair; _____ the so-lemn hour of mid- night breathes sweet thoughts ev'-ry - where. _____
high, _____ or stoop-ing low are lend - ing _____ a shel - ter from the sky. _____

11

1. | 2.

And there _____

17

in those wild bowers, _____ a love - ly form is laid; green grass _____

'Tis moonlight

23

and dew-steeped flowers wave gent - ly

29

round her head. ...gent - ly...

35

...gent - ly... 'Tis moon-light, sum - mer

40

rit.

moon - light...

circa 3' 25"