

Henry Purcell

Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-89)

Gary Bachlund

Adagio rit. A tempo

Have, fair

6
fal-len, O fair, fair have fal-len, so dear to me, so arch-e-spe-cial a spi-rit as

11 rit. A tempo
heaves in Hen-ry Pur-cell, An age is now since passed, since par-ted; with the re-ver-sal, of the 16

out-ward sen-tence low lays him, lis-ted to a he-re-sy, here.

21 rit. A tempo

Not mood in him nor mean-ing, proud fire_ or sa - cred fear, or love or pi-ty or love or pi - ty_ or all that sweet notes not his might nur - sle:

It is the for-gèd fea-ture_ finds me; it is the re-hear-sal of_ own, of a - brupt_ self_ there_ so thrusts on, so_ throngs the_ ear. ...so throngs the ear.

41 rit.

Andante

Let him Oh! with his air of an - gels then lift me, lay me!

on-ly I'll have an eye to the sakes of him, quaint moon - marks, to his pelt-ed plu-mage un- der wings; so some great storm - fowl, when-ev-er he has walked his while 50 rit.

when-ev-er he has walked his while (Hen - ry Pur-cell) the 53 a tempo

thun - der - pur - ple_ sea - beach plum - èd pur - ple of thun - der, if_ a wu - ther - ing of his_ palm - y

Ped.

snow - pin - ions scat - ter a co - los - sal smile off him, off him, but mean - ing

Ped.

mo - tion fans fresh our_ wits with won - der. ...with won - der.

Ped. Ped. Ped.

Let him Oh! with his air of an - gels then lift me, lay me! Lift me!

Ped. Ped. Ped.

65

...with won - der. ...so throngs the ear.

69

...with his air of an - gels... ...so throngs the

pp

72 ear. ...with his air of... Hen - - ry

75

rit.

Pur - cell. ...his air of an - gels.

circa 5' 00"